Now starting its thirty-seventh season, the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic - formed in 1972 through the merging of the Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Philharmonic - is a fully professional symphony orchestra that services the entire northeast Pennsylvania corridor. Its annual concert season runs from July through May of each year, and includes Masterworks, Pops, and Educational concerts. A nonprofit corporation governed by a Board of Directors, the NEPA Philharmonic is considered one of the finest regional orchestras of its kind in the country, offering professional live symphonic performances to people of all ages.
